As well as being a good excuse for a cuppa, Australia’s Biggest Morning Tea is a chance to talk about something that has personally impacted so many of us, and that’s cancer.

Every day, 26 more people in South Australia have to tell their families they have cancer.

All donations raised through your event will go towards Cancer Council’s important work that supports every single person, across every area of every cancer.

This year, we need your help.

Registering is simple and your host kit will have everything you need to put on a great morning tea. Plus there’s a tonne of tips, recipes and downloadable resources available on the Biggest Morning Tea website to help make your event an even bigger success!

Register now or call 1300 65 65 85 to talk to one of our fundraising experts.

It has been an incredible 25 years of progress in the cancer space and with your help, we can fund the next 25 years.

Every cuppa will help us get closer to a cancer free future.
